

County Profile for Cook, IL

CDC Interactive Atlas of Heart Disease and Stroke

Heart Disease Death Rate per 100,000, All Races/Ethnicities, Women, Ages 35+, 2018-2020

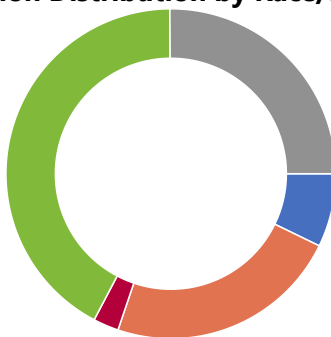

In Cook, the average estimated heart disease death rate for All Races/Ethnicities, Women, Ages 35+ for 2018-2020 is 252.8 Age-Standardized Rate per 100,000.

In the state of IL, the average estimated heart disease death rate for All Races/Ethnicities, Women, Ages 35+ for 2018-2020 is 248.9 Age-Standardized Rate per 100,000.

The national average estimated heart disease death rate for All Races/Ethnicities, Women, Ages 35+ for 2018-2020 is 248.8 Age-Standardized Rate per 100,000.

Demographic, Social, and Economic Data

Population Distribution by Race/Ethnicity

- American Indian and Alaska Native - 0.0%
- Asian and Pacific Islander - 7.2%
- Black (Non-Hispanic) - 23.0%
- Hispanic - 2.5%
- White (Non-Hispanic) - 42.2%
- Other - 25.1%

Social and Economic Data	Value
Education - Less than High School (%)	12.9 %
Poverty (%)	13.0 %
Health Insurance Status (%)	10.2 %
Median Household Income ($)	$ 69,000
Total Population	5,198,275

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion

Source: Interactive Atlas of Heart Disease and Stroke www.cdc.gov/dhdsp/maps/atlas